

Run in Seremban to promote harmony and sportsmanship

By SARBAN SINGH
sarbans@thestar.com.my

THE Malaysian Fo-Guang Buddhist Association will be hosting Harmony Run 2018 on April 29 next year to promote harmony among all races.

The event, in collaboration with Matrix Concepts Holdings Bhd, will be held at d'Tempat Country Club in Bandar Seri Sendayan, Seremban.

Event organising chairman Datin Yong Chou Lian said the run was also aimed at promoting sportsmanship.

"There will be five categories – the 10km Men's Open, Women's Open, Men's Veteran, Women's Veteran and a 5km Fun Run," she said.

Also present was Matrix Concepts Holdings Bhd managing director Datuk Lee Tian Hock.

Lee said Matrix Concepts decided to co-organise the event as part of its corporate social responsibility.

Winners in each category will get a cash prize of RM300 while those who come in second and third will get RM200 and RM100 respectively.

Those who come in fourth till 10th will each be given RM50 while RM30 awaits those occupying the 11th till 20th spots.

Runners will also be entitled to take part in a lucky draw where the prizes include handphones and electrical items.

Registration fee is RM45 and includes a Brooks T-shirt, finishers' medal and e-certificate.

- Registration will close on April 1. Those keen to take part can contact the association at 06-764 2888 or 06-454 6621.

Yong (second from right) and Lee (left) announcing the Harmony Run 2018. Also present were Fo Guang Shan (Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand and Indonesia) chief abbess Jue-Cheng (second from left).